Parish Council News

The Big Help Out - 8 May

The Big Help Out is a national day of volunteering taking place on the 8th of May, the Bank Holiday Monday of the Coronation weekend. The day's about bringing people together to volunteer, perhaps for the first time, to help improve our environment. Volunteers are invited to meet at the village hall at 10.00am and decide which of the following "jobs" they would like to undertake:

- Clearing the steps on Jacob's Ladder
- Spring cleaning St Peter's Church
- Spreading wood chippings on footpaths
- Litter picking around the village

At 12.00 noon all volunteers to reassemble in the village hall for tea and butties!

Please come along and help improve our lovely village.

Repair to footpath on Langdon Lane

The poor condition of the footpath on Langdon Lane had been reported to County Highways and repaired. However, the quality of the repairs is very poor and County Highways have undertaken to improve the repairs already undertaken.

Grit Bin and Road Sign

A new grit bin has been ordered for the corner by Bleak Cottage. The bin will be installed and maintained by County Highways. Stratford District Council has agreed to replace the damaged Tysoe Road sign by the right of the road to Westend.

A visit to Valley Farm, Langdon Lane, Radway.

On Sunday 30th April and the Bank holiday Monday 1st May, Angie is opening James Butler's sculpture studio and gallery to visitors. As many people will know, James was considered one of the country's leading figurative sculptors, and this is a chance to see the bronzes before they go on display in London at the end of May.

You can look up James' website at www.jamesbutler-ra.com.

The tour is £5 a head including tea and cake and is a fundraiser for the feeding scheme that Angie runs in Zimbabwe.

Please telephone or WhatsApp Angie on 07831 847129 to book a time for your visit.

Table Tennis anyone?

The Village Hall trustees would like to know if there is any interest in starting up a table tennis club again in the Village Hall. Anyone interested in setting up a new club and making use of the table tennis table in the Village Hall should contact Jon on 01295 597187.
