Review Date	May 2027

1. About this policy

1. This policy is in place to assist Councillors to minimise the risk of being found to have breached the Councillors' Code of Conduct through their use of social media.
2. This policy deals with the use of all forms of social media. It applies to use of social media whenever you are acting in the capacity of a Councillor as well as personal use in your private capacity that may affect the Council in any way.

2. Prohibited use

- 2.1. You must never make any social media communications that could damage the Council's interests or reputation, even indirectly.
- 2.2. You must not use social media to defame or disparage the Council, other Councillors, the Council's staff or its stakeholders.
- 2.3. You must not harass, bully or unlawfully discriminate against other Councillors, the Council's staff or any third party.

- 2.4. You must not make false or misleading statements; or impersonate other Councillors, the Council's staff or any third party.
- 2.5. You must not do anything to jeopardise the Council's confidential information and intellectual property.

3. Guidelines for responsible use of social media

- 3.1. You must make it clear in social media postings, or in your profile, whenever you are speaking on your own behalf in your capacity as an elected representative of the Council.
- 3.2. You must not post comments about sensitive community topics, such as planning applications.
- 3.3. You must be respectful to others when making any statement on social media and be aware that you are personally responsible for all communications (including posting or sharing images and sharing other content online) which will be published on the internet for anyone to see.
- 3.4. You must ensure that your profile and any content you post is consistent with your capacity as an elected representative of the Council.
- 3.5. If you are uncertain or concerned about the appropriateness of any statement or posting, please refrain from posting it until you have discussed it with the Monitoring Officer.
- 3.6. If you see social media content that disparages or reflects poorly on the Council, other Councillors, the Council's staff or any third party, please contact the Clerk or Chair of the Council.

4. Breach of this policy

Radway Parish Council reserve the right, in certain circumstances, to monitor their employee's usage of the internet or email at work.

Breach of this policy may be a breach of the Code of Conduct.
